

The Mayor

Councillor Bruce Burn Jnr was elected as Mayor of Seaham during an official ceremony at Seaham Town Council in May, 2015.

Councillor Burn's aim during his year of service will be to work with the community on various projects and to build on the good community spirit that already exists within Seaham. He will endeavour to raise funds to assist local charities and organisations within the town. The aim of Seaham Town Council is for Seaham to be a good place to live and a great place to visit and he will do his utmost to promote the town to this end.

Councillor Burn is active as an established artist with links to poets, writers and photographers within East Durham via his artists network group 'The Mad Natters'.
